

K-Love is one of the few radio stations that does not discuss sex, violence, drugs and alcohol and provides messages that positively impact our community and nation. They promote peace and assist many individuals who call into them. It provides my children something to listen to besides rap crap, country or music I am not even old enough to enjoy yet. Please don't touch! You would only be hurting those things promoting tolerance, patience and love in this country.